

+27 (0) 12 335 6994

+27 (0) 12 335 1059

+27 (0) 83 611 0467

www.wrsa.co.za

23073 GEZINA 0031

381 Booyesen Street/Booyesenstraat 381, ELOFFSDAL, 0084, Pretoria

Reg No: 2006/010722/08 VAT/BTW No.: 4200 228 098

28 January 2020

SUBMISSION ON CONSTITUTION EIGHTEENTH AMENDMENT BILL

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The view Wildlife Ranching South Africa (WRSA) holds, is that the property clause, section 25 of the Constitution, is not an impediment to land reform and redistribution in South Africa. Accordingly, as per our submission made on 15 June 2018, our organisation is of the opinion that there is no need for any amendment to this clause.

DOCUMENTATION ATTACHED

WRSA's submission as made on 15 June 2018, covering the following aspects:

1. Description of WRSA and its interest in making a submission
2. Introduction to the South African wildlife industry
3. WRSA's view on land reform
4. WRSA's view on the impact of expropriation without compensation:
 - a. On the South African wildlife ranching industry;
 - b. On the South African economy; and
 - c. Social impact
5. Proposals
6. Closing

Furthermore, as a commodity member of AgriSA, WRSA supports the submission made by AgriSA on 27 January 2020, on behalf of its member organizations.

T Mogashoa
President: WRSA

(Mrs) AL Kitshoff-Botha
Chief Executive Officer: WRSA